MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

GLOBAL AUTOMOTIVE INDUSTRY AND ELECTRIC MOTORS

The Global Passenger Vehicle production, estimated by various expert agencies, is expected to cross 100 Million by year 2020 from the current 70 million per annum. More than 90% of volume is expected to be with ICE (Internal Combustion Engine). The penetration of hybrid and electrical vehicles is expected to be around 10%.

The major drivers in the development of ICE vehicles continue to remain fuel efficiency, emission control and stretch targets are being set by vehicle manufacturers on both these parameters. While safety and comfort are also prioritized, the above stand as top priorities.

It is pertinent to note that the geographical mix of global production is seeing a significant shift towards Asia Pacific and significantly higher investments are forecasted in Asia.

ELECTRIC MOTORS

While growth in production of vehicles between now and year 2020 is expected to be >20%, growth in usage of electric motors is expected to be much higher especially in fuel efficiency and emission control actuators where the volumes are expected to more than double.

Engine Throttle Control, Exhaust Recirculation, Turbo Charger Actuators and Allied applications that will be using DC motors are expected to be most important system introductions in the Power Train space. These applications use Torque Actuator Motors manufactured by Igarashi.

Top indicators and drivers from the stand point of electric motors directly address reduction of size, weight, power consumption, and cost for a given performance of an actuator.

While intense technology discussion are progressing on the high end engineering and innovation tracks, what clearly comes out from insider analysis is the present technology with a powerful focus on the top drivers above, will offer opportunities for electric motors makers for the next 10 years.

Of late, Key Tier-1 system integrators are depending more on electric motor manufacturers who have a wide range of experience with multiple system integrators and are able to understand the electric motor requirements for different baskets of application engineering for the power train actuators.

The relevant players and leaders in this space with their market shares in the power train actuator applications are indicated below :

Power Train Actuator Application Market Share

YEAR 2013-14

It is appropriate to mention that the depreciating Rupee also played its favourable role in the improved margins during the year.

RISKS & CONCERNS

i) Global Auto Industry :

While year 2013 was a victim of cyclical nature of this industry, market started recovering in the second half of year 2013 and continues to show a growing trend, albeit, a clear shift is seen with China growing fastest followed by recovery in America and stagnation in Europe.

Although, the growth of applications using Company's electric motors is expected to continued to grow, geographical shift towards China and the pressure on Companies to localize manufacturing in countries like in Mexico and eastern Europe is beginning to gain momentum.

During the time, this will not have any negative impact in the next three to four years, we may need to keep this as a key risk assessment point.

ii) Insurance :

As your Company addresses Global Automotive Component Industry, it is exposed to various risks such as Fire Risk, Machinery Break Down Risk, Product Liability Risk, Marine Risk etc. Your Company regularly reviews and wherever possible, uses the instrument of insurance to mitigate these risks.

iii) Interest rates:

Your Company continued to depend on foreign currency borrowing there by result in reduction in Interest cost.

iv) Commodity and Exchange Risk

Your Company is exposed to the fluctuations in foreign exchange rates on Exports and Imports. Since about 2/3rd the Materials purchased are imported, there is an Auto hedge mechanism. Based on the past experiences, the Company is quoting prices to all customers with a Currency and Commodity variation clause to derisk itself from these variations.

v) Product Liability, Warranty Claims and Product Recall Risks :

Your Company, being automotive component suppliers, faces the inherent business risk of exposure to warranty and product liability claims in the event that its products fail to perform as expected or such failure results in bodily injury or property damage. Though, your Company had insurance coverage, any claim in excess of available insurance coverage would have adverse effects on Company's business.

SEGMENT WISE/PRODUCT WISE PERFORMANCE

Your Company is engaged in the business of auto components for automobiles. Since, this is only one segment; hence there is no segment wise reporting.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS & ADEQUACY

Your Company has in place adequate systems of internal control and documented procedures covering all financial and operating functions. All the assets are safeguarded and protected and all transactions are recorded promptly. Internal Audit is carried out in a programmed way and follow up actions were taken for all audit observations.

MATERIAL DEVELOPMENTS IN HUMAN RESOURCES

Continuous efforts to grow people within the Company has been a core direction of the Company and a set of 100 people have been identified as potential leaders to be a part of the growth over the next years.

The culture and character of the team in the Company continues to remain one of the most significant strengths and appropriate energies are being accorded to maintain and improve this.

In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by Management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2014

Note 1 Significant Accounting Policies

a) Basis of presentation

The Company maintains its accounts on accrual basis following the historical cost convention, in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ["GAAP"] and in compliance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956, the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent notified and the Accounting Standards as specified in the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 prescribed by the Central Government (as amended). Further, the guidance notes / announcements issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) are also considered, wherever applicable except to the extent where compliance with other statutory promulgations viz. SEBI guidelines override the same requiring a different treatment.

b) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires that the management of the Company makes estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of income and expenses of the period, the reported balances of assets and liabilities and the disclosures relating to contingent liabilities as of the date of the financial statements. Examples of such estimates include the useful lives of tangible and intangible fixed assets, allowance for doubtful debts / advances, future obligations in respect of retirement benefit plans, etc. Difference, if any, between the actual results and estimates is recognized in the period in which the results are known.

c) Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized based on nature of activity when consideration can be reliably measured and there exists reasonable certainty of its recovery.

- i. Revenue from sale of products is recognised when the substantial risks and rewards of ownership of the products are transferred to the customer under the terms of the contract and no significant uncertainty exists regarding the amount of the consideration that will be derived from the sale of products. Sales include excise duty and adjustments made towards liquidated damages and price variation, if any. Sales exclude sales tax. Escalation and other claims, which are not ascertainable/acknowledged by customers, are not taken into account.
- ii. Interest income on deposits and loans is recognised at the agreed rate on time proportion basis.

d) Fixed assets

- i. Fixed assets are stated at original cost net of tax/ duty credits availed, if any, less accumulated depreciation, accumulated amortisation and cumulative impairment.
- ii. Administrative and other general overhead expenses that are specifically attributable to the construction or acquisition of a fixed asset or bringing the fixed asset to its working condition are allocated and capitalized as part of cost of the fixed asset.

e) Depreciation

- i. Owned assets

Depreciation on assets including building constructed on leased land is provided on straight line method at the rates and in the manner specified in Schedule XIV of the Companies Act, 1956. However, in respect of the following assets, depreciation is provided at higher rates in line with their estimated useful life –

Asset description	Rate of depreciation (% p.a.)
Tools	20
Welfare assets used by the employees	20

Assets costing less than Rs.5,000/- are depreciated fully in the year of purchase.

Depreciation charge for impaired assets is adjusted in the future periods in such a manner that the revised carrying amount of the asset is allocated over its remaining useful life.

ii. Leased assets

Assets acquired under finance leases are depreciated on straight line method over the lease term. Where there is reasonable certainty that the Company shall obtain ownership of the assets at the end of the lease term, such assets are depreciated at the rates prescribed under Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956.

f) Intangible assets and amortisation

Intangible assets are recognized when it is probable that the future economic benefits that are attributable to the assets will flow to the enterprise and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably.

Product development expenses on new products are capitalised as intangible assets, if all of the following can be demonstrated:

- i. The technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale;
- ii. The Company has intention to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it;
- iii. The Company has ability to use or sell the intangible asset;
- iv. The manner in which the probable future economic benefits will be generated including the existence of a market for output of the intangible asset or intangible asset itself or if it is to be used internally, the usefulness of the intangible asset;
- v. The availability of adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset; and
- vi. The Company has ability to measure the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development reliably.

Other development costs that do not meet above criteria are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

- i. Product development expenses on new products are amortized over a period of 60 months from the date of commencement of commercial production of the relevant product.
- ii. Product design expenses in respect of future products are amortized over a period of 36 months from the date of approval of design by the customer.

Amortisation charge for impaired assets is adjusted in the future periods in such a manner that the revised carrying amount of the asset is allocated over its remaining useful life.

g) Impairment of assets

As at each Balance Sheet date, the carrying amount of asset is tested for impairment so as to determine:

- a) the provision for impairment loss, if any; and
- b) the reversal of impairment loss recognized in previous periods, if any,

Impairment loss is recognized when the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount.

Recoverable amount is determined:

- a) in the case of an individual asset, at the higher of the net selling price and the value in use; and
- b) in the case of a cash generating unit (a group of assets that generates identified, independent cash flows), at the higher of the cash generating unit's net selling price and the value in use.

(Value in use is determined as the present value of estimated future cash flows from the continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life)

h) Investments

Trade investments comprise investments in the entities in which the Company has strategic business interest.

Investments, which are readily realisable and are intended to be held for not more than one year from the date of acquisition, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments.

Igarashi Motors India Limited

Long-term investments are carried at cost, after providing for any diminution in value, if such diminution is other than temporary in nature.

The determination of carrying value of such investments is done on the basis of weighted average cost of each individual investment.

i) Inventories

Inventories are valued after providing for obsolescence as under:

Raw materials and components	At lower of weighted average cost and net realizable value.
Packing materials , stores, spares and tools	At lower of weighted average cost and net realizable value.
Work-in-progress	At lower of cost of raw material and components including related overheads and net realizable value.
Finished goods	At lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost includes raw materials, components and related overheads.

j) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents represents cash on hand and demand deposits with banks and include short-term and highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

k) Employee stock options schemes

In respect of stock options granted pursuant to the Company's Stock Option Schemes, the intrinsic value of the options (excess of market price of the share over the exercise price of the option), is treated as discount and accounted as employee compensation cost over the vesting period.

l) Leases

The determination of whether the agreement is, or contains, a lease is based on the substance of the agreement at the date of inception.

i. Finance leases

Assets acquired under leases where the Company has substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Such assets are capitalized at the inception of the lease at the lower of the fair value or the present value of minimum lease payments and a liability is created for an equivalent amount. Each lease rental paid is allocated between the liability and the interest cost, so as to obtain a constant periodic rate of interest on the outstanding liability for each period.

ii. Operating leases

Assets acquired on leases where a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Lease rentals are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss on accrual basis.

m) Foreign currency transactions

- i. The reporting currency of the Company is Indian Rupee.
- ii. Foreign currency transactions are recorded on initial recognition in the reporting currency, using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. At each balance sheet date, foreign currency monetary items are reported using the closing rate. Non-monetary items which are carried at historical cost denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction.
- iii. Exchange differences that arise on settlement of monetary items or on reporting of the Company's monetary items at each balance sheet date at the closing rate are recognised as income or expense in the period in which they arise.

n) Employee benefits

i. Short-term employee benefits:

All employee benefits falling due wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short-term employee benefits. The benefits like salaries, wages, short-term compensated absences, etc. and the expected cost of bonus and ex-gratia are recognized in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

ii. Post-employment benefits:

1) Defined contribution plans

The Company's state governed provident fund scheme, employees' state insurance scheme and employee pension scheme are the defined contribution plans. The contribution paid/payable under the schemes is recognized during the period in which the employee renders the related service.

2) Defined benefit plans

The Company's obligation towards gratuity is a defined benefit plan. The present value of the obligation under such defined benefit plan is determined based on actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method, which recognizes each period of service as giving rise to additional unit of employee benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows. The discount rate used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plans is based on the market yields on Government securities as at the balance sheet date, having maturity periods approximating to the terms of related obligations.

The fair value of the plan assets is reduced from the gross obligation under the defined benefit plans to recognise the obligation on a net basis.

Actuarial gains and losses are recognized immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss, and gains or losses on the curtailment or settlement of the defined benefit plan are recognized when the curtailment or settlement occurs.

Past service cost is recognised immediately to the extent that the benefits are already vested, and otherwise is amortised on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested.

iii. Long-term employee benefits:

The obligation for long-term employee benefits such as long-term compensated absences is recognized in the similar manner as in the case of defined benefit plans as mentioned in (ii) (2) above.

o) Borrowing costs

i. Borrowing costs include interest, commitment charges, amortization of ancillary costs, amortization of discounts/premium related to borrowings, finance charges in respect of assets acquired on finance lease and exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings, to the extent they are regarded as an adjustment to interest costs.

ii. Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalized as part of cost of such asset till such time the asset is ready for its intended use or sale. A qualifying asset is an asset that necessarily requires a substantial period of time (ordinarily, a period of twelve months) to get ready for its intended use or sale.

iii. All other borrowing costs are recognised as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

p) Taxes on income

Tax on income for the current period is determined on the basis of taxable income and tax credits computed in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961 and based on the expected outcome of assessments / appeals.

Igarashi Motors India Limited

Deferred tax is recognized on timing differences between the accounting income and taxable income for the year and quantified using the tax rates and laws enacted or substantively enacted as on the Balance Sheet date.

Deferred tax assets relating to unabsorbed depreciation/business losses are recognized and carried forward to the extent there is virtual certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized.

Other deferred tax assets are recognized and carried forward to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized.

q) Operating cycle for current/non-current classification

Operating cycle for the business activities of the Company is taken as twelve months for classification of its assets and liabilities into current/non-current.

r) Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognized for liabilities that can be measured only by using a substantial degree of estimation, if

- i. the Company has a present obligation as a result of a past event,
- ii. a probable outflow of resources is expected to settle the obligation; and
- iii. the amount of obligation can be reliably estimated.

Reimbursement expected in respect of expenditure required to settle a provision is recognized only when it is virtually certain that the reimbursement will be received.

Contingent liability is disclosed in the case of

- i. present obligation arising from a past event, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation;
- ii. a present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible;
- iii. a possible obligation arising from past events, unless the probability of outflow of resources is remote.

Contingent assets are neither recognized, nor disclosed.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date.
